

4 - 23 day Itineraries

Here are four sample South Sudan itineraries. All trips are fully customizable according to your time and interests. Prices are mentioned for one person, discounts are available for bookings with 2 or more travelers. Don't hesitate to get in touch if you have any questions.

4 day / 3 nights - Juba and Mundari tribe

- Day 1: Pick up from Juba airport, Departure straight to Mundari village. Lunch on route. Arrival at Terekeka (Mundari). Formal registration with local authorities and security before driving for another 30 minutes to the Mundari village. Evening sunset photos as the Mundari return to camp for the days grazing. Dinner at the settlement and overnight in tents.
- Day 2: Wake up early to catch the sunrise over the plains of South Sudan. Perfect for photography. Watch how the Mundari interact with their cattle. For Mundari, cows are more important than anything else, they provide food and milk but are also the most common currency and status symbol. Visit Nyikabor village which is another Mundari village for lunch. Spend the afternoon mingling with the Mundari as they show you around their village. Very few people have spent time here with this tribe. Dinner in Nyikabor village & overnight camping.
- Day 3: Depart for Juba after breakfast at the camp. Check in at the Royal Palace Hotel or equivalent. Free time in Juba before meeting for Dinner at the Afex Riverside Camp (not included). Overnight in the Royal Palace Hotel.
- Day 4: Tour of Juba in the morning after breakfast to see Dr. John Garang Mausoleum, South Sudan's biggest market - the Konyo and Custom Markets, Jubek tomb after which the city is named, All Saints Cathedral Kator, Mosque and Craft market. End of Tour.

- Day 4: The Dinka are nicknamed the World's tallest people, and you'll quickly understand why. Spend the full day with this unique tribe as they care for their animals. Local feast and overnight in the Dinka cattle camp.
- Day 5: After breakfast, drive back to Juba. Check into the Royal Palace Hotel for much needed downtime. Explore some of the capital city on your own time. Dinner at the Afex riverside camp – South Sudan's best. Overnight in Juba.
- Day 6: Tour Juba city, starting with South Sudan's biggest market: the Konyo – an incredible place where the immense ethnic diversity of South Sudan can be seen. Our next stop in our Juba city tour is the Presidential Palace, the residence of South Sudan's colorful leader. We then head to John Garang Mausoleum. John Garang is famous for leading the revolution but also promoting the concept of Sudan-ism, where all Sudanese should go beyond the divisions & embrace all cultures of South Sudan. Our next stop is Jubek Tomb, for which the city is named after. Lunch. All Saints Cathedral. We finish our city tour with a stop at the craft market- perfect for hand made souvenirs. End of South Sudan tour.
